RAILROAD DISASTERS

Accidents to Trains Attended With Loss of Life.

SEVEN KILLED IN MISSOURI.

A Train Plunges Into a Gorge Which Had Become a Raging Torrent—Nineteen People Injured, but All Will Recover, Probably, Except One—A Blunder Causes a Collision at Millersburg, O.

KANSAS CITY, June 28.—The St. Louis express on the Wabash railway, which left here at 6:20 Saturday evening, plunged through a trestle at Missouri City, Mo., at 7:05 o'clock, carrying down the entire train with the exception of the rear car, a Pullman. The gorge, which a few hours previously was practically empty, had become a raging torrent because of a tremendous downpour of a rain, and the structure weakened. Seven persons were killed and 19 injured.

A list of the dead is as follows:

W. S. Mills, postal clerk, St. Louis.
O. M. Smith, postal clerk, St. Louis.
Gustave A. Smith, postal clerk, St. Louis.

Charles Winters, postal clerk, St. Louis.

F. W. Brink, postal clerk, St. Louis.
Edward Grindrod, baggage man, St. Louis.

Charles P. Greasley, brakeman, St. Louis.

Nineteen people were injured, though none of them seriously except one. Following is a list of those most seriously hurt:

G. C. Copeland of St. Louis, conductor of the train, fractured skull and several ribs broken. He is at the hospital, where he lingers between life and death, but the surgeons express a hope that he will recover.

Mrs. S. C. P. Rathor, Columbia, Mo., head, shoulders and neck very badly injured.

Artelia Praefner, Columbia, Mo., 8 years old, head and face cut.

W. H. Wilkinson, Kansas City, shoulders injured and head and face covered with cuts.

Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson, Kansas City, right arm broken, head and face cut.

Miss Alice Darcy, Kansas City, head badly cut, both arms sprained, side injured.

Miss Nellie Merrick of Carrollton, back badly hurt.

Mrs. Sallie Matthews, Kansas City, side hurt.

Edward Dillon, Holliday, Kan., head bruised and cut, knee sprained.

Dr. Sol Gray, Prairie Hill, Mo., right knee and both elbows injured.

J. W. Hinnon, Mexico, Mo., both legs badly bruised.

Conductor Copeland was supposed to be dead when taken from the wreck and his body, with a handkerchief down over the face, was ranged in a row with the seven dead corpses. A few minutes later some one observed a sign of life and he was quickly transferred to a stretcher and given every possible attention.

All indications are that death came to at least four of the five unfortunate mail clerks almost instantly. Their car pitched end first through the break in the trestle and they must have been drowned in the raging stream while in an unconscious condition. The remains of the four were carried from the wreck and were recovered some distance down the stream. There were signs of life in the body of the fifth mail clerk, when rescuers dragged him from the wreck, but he died a few minutes later on the bank of the creek.

It was feared there were more bodies in the stream, but a careful search proved that the fatalities were limited to those already named. There is now but a small stream flowing beneath the trestle where the wreck occurred. In ordinary weather it is a dry creek bed. The storm of Saturday night, which was almost a cloudburst, had swollen the little stream to torrential proportions. The flood carried away a wagon bridge a short distance above the Wabash trestle. The wreck of this bridge was hurled down upon the railroad trestle and carried away a row of wooden supports in the center.

A neighboring farmer noticed the perilous condition of the trestle and resolved to flag the passenger train which he knew to be about due. For nearly an hour he stood there in the terrific downpour of rain, only to fail at last in his good intentions for when the Wabash company's New York fast mail came thundering on, the storm was almost blinding and the engineer evidently could not see the signal which the farmer so frantically waved across the track.

The locomotive struck the trestle; a moment later the disaster was presented in all its horrors. The engine passed over but the tender went through with the tumbling bridge. The baggage car toppled off on its side, while the mail car which followed, pitched into the stream end first. Every life in this car was lost. The smoker, next behind, followed. It was in this car that Conductor Copeland was riding. The other occupants escaped serious injury.

The chair car next behind also plunged in upon the mass of wreckage end first and all its passengers were thrown to the forward end in an indescribable heap. How they escaped with so more serious injury is a mystery which all the passengers in this coach are puzzled over.

The front end of the sleeper, next in the rear, jammed into the protruding end of the chair car, and was thus prevented from following the others into the chasm. The two Excelsior Springs coaches in the rear remained on the track.

A freight train following the wrecked train was flagged by passengers about 200 feet from the wreck.

The postal authorities report that probably nearly all the mail carried on the train was lost or destroyed. When the wreck occurred the five postal clerks are supposed to have had all of their pouches open and to have been at work distributing the mail. The car was so broken and splintered that most of the mail floated off, probably to drift into the Missouri river and be lost. The Wabash train each evening carries all of Kansas City's afternoon mail for the east, and it is always heavy and valuable.

The scene of the wreck, which is but 21 miles northeast of Kansas City, near Missouri City station, was visited yesterday by many persons. A wrecking train worked there all day, repairing the trestle and raising the shattered coaches, and now the trains are moving over the road as usual.

ONE KILLED AND SEVEN INJURED.

An Excursion Train Dashes Into a Standing Passenger Train.

AKRON, O., June 28.—Saturday the employees of the Goodrich Rubber company, the Diamond Rubber company and the Akron Rubber company started on a special Cleveland, Akron and Columbus train for their annual outing at Hiawatha park, Mount Vernon. The train was going through Millersburg at a high rate of speed, when the engineer suddenly discovered a Baltimore and Ohio train on the track ahead of him standing in front of the depot. He whistled for brakes, and applied the air, after reversing, but there appeared to be no check on the speed. It dashed on and struck the Baltimore and Ohio train.

The collision was terrific. The engineers and firemen of both engines jumped and saved themselves. The Baltimore and Ohio engine was thrown from the track, as well as the baggage car on the colliding train. Both engines were badly wrecked, and both baggage cars were badly damaged. There were 500 passengers on board the excursion train, and great excitement prevailed.

The baggage car of the picnic train, in which were a number of wheelmen with their wheels, was almost completely crushed, and from the appearance of the car it is wonderful that any of the occupants escaped with their lives.

The shock throughout the entire train was very violent, and several of those in the very last car were thrown violently from their seats to the floor, receiving slight injuries and bruises.

The names of the injured are as follows:

Philip Rosemond, left leg broken at the hip and otherwise injured so badly that he died after being removed to a hospital.

John Wiese, internally injured.

Elias Capron, back and left leg badly bruised.

Champ Lilly, nose broken, severe bruises.

Frank Hilton, leg severely injured.

Edward Hilton, injured about head.

Arthur Cope, broken ankle and internal injuries.

All of the above were riding in the baggage car.

It is said that the Baltimore and Ohio conductor told his engineer that the special was not due until 9:16 a. m. and that he should go ahead, when in reality the order read that the special was due at 8:16 a. m.

The wrecked train was hauled back to Akron. It was met by ambulances and the injured taken to the hospital.

EVIDENCE OF A MURDER.

Pieces of a Man's Body Found at Different Places in New York.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The lower part of the trunk of a man was found by two boys in the woods at One Hundred and Seventy-sixth street and Undercliff avenue, this city, yesterday. It was terribly mutilated and shows plainly that a murder has been committed.

It was wrapped in oil cloth and manilla paper, exactly as was the upper part of a trunk found in the East river off Eleventh street Saturday. The two are parts of the same body. The two pieces were found more than eight miles apart, one in the water and the other on the land.

The man could not have been dead more than 36 hours and perhaps not more than 24. The man's age was about 35 years and his height 5 feet 10 inches. He was a laborer and the condition of the body indicated a well nourished, healthy man.

The detectives of two precincts and the best central office men are working on the case.

Killed His Brother.

BUYRUS, O., June 28.—A fatal shooting took place just west of here Saturday. Ben Streib was shooting birds through a knot hole in the house. His brother Dan was in the barn, 125 yards distant. The ball from a 32-caliber revolver struck Dan in the breast, and he walked to the house, lay down on the bed and expired. Dan was executor of his grandfather, who was killed on the railroad several weeks ago. The two young men inherited all his property.

Battle in a Church Yard.

PLEASANT VALLEY, TEX., June 28.—Augustus A. Garrison and Frank Jones were killed and Tom Jones mortally wounded in a bloody battle which took place in the Methodist church yard yesterday. Garrison killed Frank Jones and was then shot by Tom, a brother of Frank. Before dying he mortally wounded Tom Jones. A young lady had been wronged by Frank Jones, and Garrison determined to avenge the wrong.

AFFAIRS IN HAWAII.

Advices as Brought by the Latest Steamer.

A STARTLING RUMOR AFLOAT.

Japanese About to Seize the Customhouse at Honolulu, but Were Thwarted by the Prompt Action Taken by Admiral Beardslee—Minister Sewall Reaches Honolulu and Calls on the President.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The steamer Gaelic brought the following advices from Honolulu, H. I., June 20:

Since the Philadelphia has been in port weekly battalion drills have been held. On the 14th the men from both the Marion and the flagship were landed. While on the march to the drill grounds an orderly brought an order and the battalion returned on board. This action was taken, it is understood, on account of a rumor to the effect that the Nanawai would land a force of men to take charge of the Hawaiian customhouse. The Japanese failed to act and it is believed that Admiral Beardslee's prompt action caused the captain to change his mind.

The English speaking people here believe that there was good foundation for the rumor in spite of the denial made at the Japanese legation.

"There are all kinds of rumors floating around," said Counsellor Akiyama. "One ridiculous one was that the Japanese steamers were to land and take charge of the customhouse. Another is to the effect that the Nanawai is to leave on Wednesday next. That rumor, as also the other, is without any foundation whatever. About two months hence another man-of-war would be here and the Nanawai is likely to leave before then."

Japanese Minister Shimama denies a story to the effect that Japan has withdrawn his request from the Hawaiian government for an explanation of the reasons for ejecting the Japanese immigrants.

"There has been no correspondence between this legation and the minister of foreign affairs since June 4," said the minister. "At that time, I addressed a letter to the minister of foreign affairs and as yet, though it seems a very long time, I have received no reply."

"The position is this," he said: "Before the steamer having the immigrants on board, left Honolulu, I made a formal protest to the minister of foreign affairs. His answer was incomplete and unsatisfactory. In due time I received instructions from my government and sent a request to the minister of foreign affairs for the reason for the expulsion of the Japan laborers. The Hawaiian government sent me an answer which I considered vague and indefinite. On June 4 I wrote again and for two weeks my letter has remained unanswered. I am daily expecting a communication to arrive."

Y. Shikawa, editor of the Tokio Chuo Shimbun, who came here on the Japanese cruiser Nanawai to investigate the trouble arising from Japanese immigration, started for home on the 15th inst. He carried with him a proposition from Colonel Spaulding for a trans-Pacific cable, which he believes capitalists of his country will not be slow to take hold of at no very distant date.

"But how about the rise of your investigation in the immigration tangle?" was asked.

"To speak frankly," replied Mr. Shikawa, "I have found that matter was not worth my time and attention. I am convinced that the difference between Hawaii and Japan will be settled in a most amicable manner. The whole affair has been very much exaggerated. Instead of stirring up more strife, I think my time can be spent to better advantage in working out this cable scheme and bringing the two countries into closer trade relations."

Hon. Harold M. Sewall made a formal call on President Dole at the executive building on the 7th and presented his credentials as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary from the United States. He was accompanied by Charge d'Affaires Ellis Mills. A reception was tendered the minister on the 16th. It took place on board of the Philadelphia and was well attended.

Admiral Beardslee said that he had received instructions from the secretary of the navy by the last steamer, concerning the repairs to be made on the Marion. She will have another survey made and will be repaired to a certain extent in Honolulu. After this has been done the vessel will be sent to Mare Island or some other naval station for a general overhauling. The admiral said that everything is in statu quo as regards the change of the United States cruisers in the Honolulu port. The Baltimore will relieve the Philadelphia in this port as soon as she has her repairs completed on Mare Island.

United States Consul General Mills will leave for Washington as soon as his successor, William Hayward arrives, which will probably be within the next fortnight. Mr. Mills is not fully determined upon his future plans. He may return to Honolulu and engage in the law practice.

Minister Cooper has not yet appointed a successor to the late Frank Hastings, secretary of the Hawaiian legation at Washington. W. N. Armstrong, now at the capital, will, it is said, probably be selected.

CAPTURED THE ARMS.

Philippines Making It Very Unpleasant For the Spaniards.

TACOMA, Wash., June 28.—Advices received by steamer Victoria brings the following news of the Philippine rebellion. A large band of insurgents who left Cavite have reached the neighborhood of Manila, and on May 18 were within an hour's drive of the capital. This was after Commander-in-chief Rivers had published his latest proclamation declaring the rebellion ended, and offering a pardon to the insurgents. Late Yokohama papers print a letter written from the rebel camp at Balinkang, near Manila, on May 18. The writer asserts that during the campaign just ended the Spanish have lost no less than 4,700 men killed and mortally wounded.

The rebels started with but nine efficient guns, while now they have nearly 10,000 captured Mauser and Remington rifles. Three important towns had just risen in rebellion—one in Tambaes and another in Taybas.

FORECAST OF CONGRESS.

Tariff Bill May Be Finished in the Senate and Go to the House.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Republican tariff managers are still hopeful that the present may prove to be the last week of the tariff debate in the senate. All the schedules have been gone over once, leaving nothing to be done but to consider the paragraphs in the various schedules which have been passed when reached in their regular order, because of differences of opinion among the Republicans themselves.

Many of these differences have been adjusted in the Republican ranks, but the Democrats will naturally take advantage of their knowledge of the feeling existing among their opponents to debate some of the questions at length. It is understood now that coal, leather, hides and lead ore will each be vigorously discussed, as will also the questions, though more briefly, of reciprocity, the treatment of trusts and the disposition of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty.

In view of the determination of the Democrats to exploit all these questions and others as well it would seem impossible to conclude the senate's work on the bill before the end of the week, and it is more than probable that the final work will be reserved for the following week.

The house will continue this week its policy of adjournment from Monday until Thursday. After that its course will depend upon the action of the senate. If by any chance a vote should be had on the tariff bill Wednesday or Thursday, the house probably will remain in session to receive the bill, disagree to the senate amendments and appoint conferees. Otherwise an adjournment will be had from Thursday to Monday.

MINERS ADJOURN.

Some of Them Wanted to Strike, but No Action Was Taken.

COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—The executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America adjourned without taking definite action. The members of the committee are unable to agree on the proposition to order a general strike. Representatives of some of the districts are ready for a strike, but others are hesitating.

The Ohio operators have told the miners that the prices must either go up to 60 cents in the Pittsburgh district or come down to 45 cents per ton in Ohio. If, after a thorough canvass of the situation, it is decided not to order a general strike and present conditions and prices are allowed to continue in the Pittsburgh district then the Ohio miners will have to accept a reduction from 51 to 54 cents per ton or wage an independent fight against the reduction.

Thought to Be Suicide.

HUNTINGBURG, Ind., June 28.—The headless body of a woman, apparently 40 years of age, was found early Saturday morning by section men west of here beside the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis railroad. The position she was found in indicated that she had lain down to sleep with her head resting on the rail, her body being to the right of the track. The woman was seen Friday in Huntingburg. She gave her name as Mrs. Sommers, a dress maker from Evansville. She was attired in black satin blouse and skirt. From her talk it is surmised that her mind was affected. It is thought to be a case of suicide, as a note was found on her body stating that she had no friends or relatives and wanted to die.

Must Remain in Jail.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Adolph L. Lnetgart, the wealthy sausage manufacturer, accused of murdering his wife and disposing of her body in a vat of acid at his factory, was Saturday refused release on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Gibbons held him for trial without bail. The prisoner was at once arraigned, and entered a plea of not guilty, his attorney, ex-Judge Vincent, asking for an immediate trial.

Not Mary McCullum.

BROOKVILLE, Ind., June 28.—There is no truth in the report that Mary McCullum has returned home. John McCullum, a brother of the missing girl, was recently married. It was his wife, on her way from Elwood to Brookville, who sent the telegram from Hagerstown signed Mayne, which started the report that the missing Mary had been discovered.

Ohio River Steamer Sank.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 28.—The steamer W. F. Nisbet, owned by the Cincinnati-Pomeroy Packet company bound for Pomeroy, sank one mile below Central City at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The boat is on the bar in but five feet of water. None of her cargo is damaged. Passengers are all safe.

POSITION OF JAPAN.

Her Opposition to Our Annexation of Hawaii.

DIFFERENT POINTS OF CONTENTION

She Claims That the Treaty Is an Interference With the Treaty Rights of Japan, and Was Negotiated in the Face of the Most Friendly Protests of That Country.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Japanese position on the annexation of Hawaii by the United States has been made known from a very high source. The Japanese base their opposition to annexation almost entirely upon the ground that it is an interference with the treaty rights of Japan, and complain especially that the treaty was negotiated in the face of the most friendly protests from Japan and at a time when the Japanese authorities had been led to believe that no such treaty would be undertaken.

The Japanese insist, as on all former occasions, that the Japanese government has not now and never has had any designs against Hawaii. This they consider a most important point because of the talk about colonization, which they say has apparently had so much weight in the discussion of the question.

They contend that the Japanese first went to Hawaii in response to the demand for labor in the island under provisions of a treaty concluded in 1886 at the solicitation of the Hawaiian government. They call attention to the fact that the Japanese government have always been averse to having their people go abroad as "coolies" as the Chinese do and that the government has always striven to prevent such immigration. As a consequence the Hawaiian treaty was so worded as to prevent even the suspicion of anything like coolie labor.

The interests of all parties were, they say, protected, and as a consequence the Hawaiian planters secured a high class of agricultural labor upon fair terms and under circumstances that did not give the least occasion for the dislike and opprobrium which generally attach to contract labor. This they say worked admirably for years and until the planters became restless under the conditions imposed by the treaty thinking, the Japanese hold, that they could secure labor more cheaply with the restrictions removed.

At the same time the question of annexation came up and the adherents of union with the United States thought it would be necessary to make changes in the method of obtaining the labor absolutely necessary to the prosperity of the sugar industry of the islands. This was, they claim, the origin of the so-called "voluntary" system of immigration to Hawaii.

The development of this situation led to the framing by the Japanese government of its emigration law. This law is very strict in prohibiting the exportation of Japanese labor except where employment is assured, and it is claimed that under its provisions it would be impossible to flood the Hawaiian islands as has been asserted to be the Japanese purpose without the connivance of the Japanese authorities. This, they hold, could not be secured in view of the policy of Japan against the exportation of coolie labor, and in view of the repeated denials of Japan of any designs upon Hawaii.

They assert that Hawaii took no steps to restrict immigration from Japan until last February, when a sudden and surprising demand was made upon Japan to this end. This, they claim, is evidence sufficient that there was no flooding of the island. They regarded this demand from the island government as capricious and contended that it was made for the purpose of increasing the agitation in the interest of annexation and to furnish a pretext for speedy action in that direction. To the same end they consider the cry of danger from Hawaii on account of Japanese aggression to have been raised. They hoot the idea that this fear had any foundation in fact and say that the danger existed only in the minds of the zealous advocates of annexation.

They assert that Japan has freely explained every step taken in this controversy with Hawaii to the United States and they hold that the fact that such explanation has been made should be accepted as proof positive that Japan has no ulterior designs upon the islands.

In view of this explanation on their part to the United States, they complain of the suddenness of the announcement of the Hawaiian treaty of annexation and say that the treaty was consummated when they had reason from official assurances for believing that no hasty action in that direction was contemplated.

They consider that many subjects of Japan are entitled to damages on account of Hawaii's summary refusal to permit them to land and that they are deprived of their remedy by the consummation of the treaty. On this account they are inclined to regard the action as unjust and arbitrary.

They also hold that Japan has rights under treaties with Hawaii, other than those detailed, including reciprocal immunities which they fear may not be renewed if Hawaii becomes a part of the United States. The present purpose, they hold, appears to be to terminate these rights without privilege of appeal and against this proceeding they protest. They hold that while Japan has no purpose of asserting any authority in Hawaii, the Japanese government has the right to remonstrate in the interest of her citizens and to demand that her legitimate rights be respected.

sally used. Twenty million pounds were used in this country last year. The en-

THE BLACK DIAMOND.

Knoxville Post Says An English Syndicate
Is Ready to Put Up $500,000,000
For the Road.

[Knoxville Post, June 22.]

Col. Boone failed to arrive in the city Friday, as announced that he would, because of important matters demanding his time at the other end of the line, matters of detention arising after the date of coming was named. But the directors here are happy still.Saturday evening a gentleman, whose name and address are withheld for reasons best known by the directors, came to the city and arranged a meeting with some of the directors, the result of which was pleasing. The gentleman represents an English company having $500,000,000 which they are seeking to invest in this country, and said the South was their desired field. The gentleman has spent several weeks south of Knoxville on the proposed line of railroad, and during that time he purchased over 300,000 acres of mineral and timber lands. Questions propounded him developed the fact that he was well up on minerals; he averred that the minerals along the line made this the richest country on God's foot-stool, also that the road would be a paying one from the first year.He assured the directors whom he met that if the road was not already financed his company would be glad to furnish the means. He said it would be the finest property in the world and that was the kind of investments his company was seeking for.The gentleman left for an Eastern city, leaving an injunction with the directors to arrange a meeting with Col. Boone for him after the lapse of ten days, and then write him.Dover Messenger: "Col. Boone has rented Terhune hall for division offices of the Black Diamond and for the use of the construction department. He has also rented the pretty Cushman residence for his own private headquarters for himself and Mr. Tull. He has also rented the Farmers' National Bank building in Ripley for his headquarters at that place."Zanesville, O., Times-Recorder: "Col.
John B. Yates will again enter the service of Col. Boone and in addition to being chief engineer of his construction company in Tennessee, will have charge of locating the outer belt for Columbus, O.,
and the lines of the Columbus, Ohio River and Tidewater Railway. The Col.
Yates above mentioned was a Government Engineer during the war, and resigned a $5,000 position as a Government Engineer to accept the position as Chief Engineer of the Black Diamond System
from the lakes to the gulf. He is considered to be one of the very best civil engineers in the country and especially he is reliable and quick in the location of railroads. Under him will be the local or division engineers in each State through which the road passes. Mr. Crenshaw will have charge of the Ohio division with offices at Ripley. Mr. James K.
Sroufe will have charge of the Ohio river, Frankfort and Western division,
from Dover to Frankfort, with headquarters at Dover."

To Kill Cabbage Worms.

A correspondent writes the Farm Journal thus: "I am opposed to the use of paris green in any form for cabbage worms, as it is dangerous. I have grown cabbage for many years and have never used this poison for the worms, but have a remedy that is sure death. Dilute strong beef brine one-third with water.
Dip a whisk broom into this mixture and shake it over the plants at any time when there is danger from worms. The solution is a fertilizer in itself and will not harm anyone. I have used this for the past twenty years with perfect success, never failing to kill worms or to raise fine cabbages."

Your Boy Won't Live a Month.

So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 34 Mill street, South Gardiner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had lung trouble, following typhoid malaria, and he spent $375 with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to the use of Dr.
King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for lung trouble.

by making jeans trousers at 15 cents a dozen. She could only earn 8 cents a

SCARCITY OF CATTLE.

Demand For Heavy Beeves Increasing. But the Lighter Kinds Wanted by Most Users.

[Rural World.]

The fact that last season heavy beeves were at a discount and this season at a premium, has caused considerable talk about the supposed sudden change in the market's demand. It is true that there has been a decided change in the market's position in regard to light and heavy weight cattle; but this may be ascribed to the change in the nature of the supply
rather than to a reversal of the market's requirements. Last season, heavy cattle were bought and used as freely as this,
but they were plentiful, and light grades were so scarce as to give the impression that the demand was mainly for the latter.This season the State of affairs has been reversed, and although the outlet for heavy cattle has not enlarged very much, yet the supply has been so small as to send them to a premium, and cause
many people to think that we are going back to the day of heavy beeves. This idea is not correct. There will always be some call for cattle weighing 1,500 to 1,600 pounds. Exporters want them. Some butchers must have them, and they want them all the year. The bulk of the users of cattle, however, will ask for lighter but well-finished kinds, and the relative position of both classes in the market will be regulated largely by their numbers.THE Kentucky Christian Missionary convention elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Victor W.
Dorris, Georgetown; First Vice President,
J. T. Sharrard, Stanford; Second Vice President, C. K. Marshall, Harrodsburg;
Secretary, Wm. F. Rogers, Bardstown;
Assistant Secretary, H. W. Elliott, Sulphur; Treasurer, W. G. Conley, Lexington; State Evangelist, H. W. Elliott, Sulphur; Executive Board, J. W. McGarvey, President Charles L. Loss, John T. Hawkins, J. W. Taylor, W. G. Conley, A.
Fairhurst, B. C. Devesee, all of Lexington.
The Committee on Future Work indorsed the apportionment plan, and thought that the churches should be asked to give $12,000 of the $14,500 needed and the Sunday school to give $2,500, for the mission cause during the coming year. As far as possible, the church collections will be taken in October. The Sunday school collection will be taken the first Sunday in August.

STRICKEN WITH HEART DISEASE

And Succumbs to the Attack—Sudden Death of William Bierley, of Portsmouth.

[Portsmouth Times.]

William Bierley, of 61 East Fourth street, while sitting in a chair at the business house of George Helt Friday night, was seen to fall over in his chair.
Mr. Helt ran to him at once and sent a messenger for Dr. Kline, who soon arrived and pronounced the man dead.
Coroner Davidson was notified and held an inquest, returning a verdict of death from heart disease.It is understood that Mr. Bierley had been subject to attacks of heart trouble for many years past. His physician, under such circumstances, always advised him, if possible, to get a glass of whisky,
or other strong stimulant. Mr. Bierley's friends say that he was passing along the street, and feeling one of the attacks coming on, entered Mr. Helt's place for a stimulant. Death came quickly after he entered the room.The deceased was born at Wittenburg, Germany, June 22, 1847.Deceased leaves a number of relatives in this city. He was a brother of Mrs.
Henry Dersch and a cousin of Mr. Martin Bierley.

fetching shirt waists for the summer girl.

Young People's Societies to Conduct the Rallies During the Summer and Fall.

The State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. H. E. Rosevear, of Louisville, called at the local association rooms on Saturday afternoon. He expects to visit the city again on Friday evening of this week when a special meeting of the Board of Directors will be held.

The Christian Endeavorers of the Christian Church, who had kindly volunteered to arrange and conduct the association service, came to the rooms with a delegation of about twenty-five young people yesterday afternoon, and by their presence and participation made the men's rally exceedingly interesting and helpful to the forty or more young men who were present to enjoy the exercises. After the service, a short time was spent in social conversation, lemonade being served to all, and before the audience dispersed the endeavor delegation were thanked heartily for providing such an excellent service.

The association will invite the different societies of young people to conduct the men's rally during the summer and fall months.

SUDDEN SUMMONS.

Death of Mrs. Mima Campbell, Colored, After an Illness of a Few Hours.

Mrs. Jennima Campbell, wife of Henry W. Campbell the colored barber of East Second street, died suddenly about 5 o'clock Sunday morning.

She was up and about Saturday evening, apparently in her usual health, and ate some pickles while away from home. On returning she complained of "a lump in her throat" and went to bed. About one o'clock she got up and seated herself in a rocking chair near the bed. Her husband went to sleep shortly afterwards, and was awakened about 4 o'clock Sunday morning by her falling out of the chair. A physician was hastily summoned, but she was in a dying condition, and lingered only an hour or so. Her death is attributed to Bright's disease.

Deceased was about forty years old, was born at Poplar Plains and was brought to Maysville by the Pearce family twenty-nine years ago. She was a member of Daughters of Samaria Lodge No. 9. Funeral Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Bethel Baptist Church, Rev. Wm. Alford officiating, assisted by Rev. O. A. Nelson and Rev. W. H. Evans. Burial in Maysville cemetery.

BYGONE YEARS.

Could I call back the by-gone years
And live them o'er to-day,
What heartaches and what bitter tears,
I would have me on the way.
The youthful follies that I sought,
Because 'twould pleasure bring,
That now I know have sorrow brought,
Could never to me cling.

The seeds that in those years were sown—
Have sprouted and come up!
The crop of cares have all been mown,
And I have drained the cup;
The fruitage that each one must reap
Is from the seed they sow,
Even though we tears of sorrow weep,
With wheat the tares will grow.

Yet why repine, 'tis for the best,
All things that are, we know,
When troubles but our patience test,
They fit us here below.

For joyous, bright and happy years,
When labor all is done,
And from this misty vale of tears,
Our spirits once have flown.

So, by-gone years, farewell to you,
Long buried in the past,
I'll travel on my journey through,
While still my life shall last;
Though I may not recall you more,
Nor grieve that you have passed,
I know I'll on the other shore,
Remember you at last.

With the remembrance of the price of wheat last year, and the present price of flour, is it any wonder that the farmers are forced to contemplate a combine?
Bud Sweet is this week cutting wheat for T. W. Case and R. C. Williams, with his new twine binder, the Houma. It is a daisy and does excellent work, leaves no wheat standing on the field. Mr. Sweet intends sowing 100 acres of land this fall.
